CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 2:18-CR-909

ORDER

Defendant Larry Joseph Diaz has filed an Emergency Motion for Reduction in Sentence Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A)(i) (D.E. 72), wherein he moves the Court to reduce his sentence to time served because he recently recovered from COVID-19 and his underlying medical conditions (hypertension and high cholesterol) make him particularly vulnerable to severe illness or death should he become re-infected. He has submitted the warden's denials of his requests for home confinement and compassionate release; however, he has offered no medical records in support of his motion. The Court similarly has no information regarding his conduct while in prison.

Defendant is hereby ORDERED to provide the Court with current copies of his medical records and prison disciplinary history.

The Government is further ORDERED to respond to Defendant's motion not later than 7 days after he supplements the record, indicating any opposition thereto.

ORDERED this 27th day of July, 2020.

NELVA GONZALES RAMOS
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
